

About Civilian Operations

The Civilian Department, also known as CivOps or Civilian Operations, is the administrative body that oversees all civilian roleplay and gameplay on the FiveM server. With a mandate to enrich the server's world and immersion, the Civilian Department coordinates civilian employment, activities, and mechanics.

Origins

The Civilian Department was established to create fulfilling roleplay for players and maintain the rules set by the department and the server. Recognizing the need for diverse roleplay opportunities beyond gang conflicts and criminal activities.

Leadership

The Civilian Department is led by what are called "Department Heads" Director, T.Williams. The department is constantly seeking to expand offerings and refine mechanics to create immersive, rewarding roleplay for civilians.
